The Levy Economics Institute is a part of Bard College, a residential college. To find out more about the area kindly visit <http://www.bard.edu/about/location/>

There are two types of lodging accommodation in the vicinity. The most attractive ones are “bed & breakfast” places as well as some older hotels. These are beautifully appointed establishments and much preferred to the standard hotels by those who visit this scenic area. Unfortunately they are not equipped to accommodate large numbers of people, nor do they provide what are by now standard conveniences such as internet access, exercise rooms etc.

If you wish to explore these lodging options please visit <http://www.rhinebeckchamber.com/lodging/>

Please Note: Booking your own accommodations also implies you have to secure a means of transportation to and from the conference site, as daily group transportation to the Conference site will be provided exclusively from the hotel Hampton Inn.

If you are not driving or renting a car and should you decide to stay in a different hotel or at one of the “bed & breakfast” spots the following companies can provide you with daily transportation to Blithewood, the conference site, at a cost of approximately $30-$35 each way.

Red Hook Taxi Service, 845-758-1478;
Rhinebeck Taxi, 845-876-5466;
Horseless Carriage, 845-757-2900;
Chariot Taxi, 845-876-3000

MORE ON HOW TO REACH THE LEVY INSTITUTE ...

For those who wish to arrange transportation on their own: We are located on Annandale-on-Hudson, New York, on the east bank of the Hudson River, about 90 miles north of New York City and 220 miles southwest of Boston. For information on how to reach the Institute please visit <http://www.levy.org/visit.aspx> and/or <http://www.bard.edu/about/location/>
